0 of 0 review helpful Wonderful read for students of Corporate Strategy By Gerardo It is important to note what this book is not it s not a complete biography or Alexander it is not a 100 accurate historic description of his entire life or all his battles it is does not even attempt to analyze all his battles In fact i think only three are depicted in detail What this book is is a wonderful story of how on Alexander the Great endures as one of the most admired and emulated leaders in world history In our time his example of unprecedented and unparalleled success has inspired leaders of business and government from media mogul Ted Turner who keeps a bronze bust of Alexander in his office to Desert Storm commander General Norman Schwarzkopf who credits Alexander's tactical innovations for his dramatic flanking maneuver against the Iraqi army in the liberation of Kuwait From Publishers Weekly Indian born strategy adviser Bose sees Alexander the Great as a paragon of strategy and leadership for contemporary businesspersons And apparently he's not alone Baz Luhrman Norman Schwarzkopf Oliver Stone and Ted Turner all agree the
