The Literacy Club LC is an effective approach to instruction and intervention for linguistically diverse K-5 learners who are struggling with literacy in general education or bilingual education classrooms. This step-by-step guide shows English as a second language bilingual and classroom teachers and literacy specialists how to implement the LC in their schools. Teachers learn how to set appropriate goals, oracy literacy and metacognitive awareness for language 1. About the Author Kathryn Henn Reinke is a professor of English as a second language bilingual education at the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh. Her research agenda includes intervention and instruction with English learners, development of biliteracy and diffe
